※ 다음 글을 읽고 물음에 답하시오. (25 – 26번)

Favio Chávez, the conductor of the junk orchestra wants people to know that even garbage can make inspiring music. After meeting Chávez, and his children in Cateura, I realized that it really doesn't matter what instruments you play with ㉠as long as you put your heart into playing it. The children of Cateura showed me ㉢that an orchestra is formed not by people but by instruments. I think that their concert will help people think about social issues like the environment.

There are three comments:

Annie: So moving to see how music can change lives. ㉡The power of music is endless!

Thomas: After the concert, ㉠I realized that it is possible to inspire people by music played with instruments made from garbage. The music was so beautiful.

Kate: ㉢These talented young people deliver very great music. They also bring serious (A)_____ problems to our attention.
